

Government Advocacy Training

A free training presented by The Arc of Pennsylvania in partnership with The Arc of Dauphin and Lebanon Counties

Who should attend?

- Anyone who has a child or loved one with an intellectual disability
- Any member of The Arc that would like to have their voice heard.
- Anyone who wants to learn more about how to effectively help legislators understand your priorities.
- Anyone who wants to ensure that long term supports continue to be available for their loved one.

What: Government Advocacy Training

When: March 15, 2010, 6:30-8 p.m.

Where: The Arc's Harsco Center
2569 Walnut St.
Harrisburg, PA 17103

In these tough budget times it is especially important for legislators to understand how important their support is for people with disabilities. This training will teach you strategies to communicate with legislators and connect you with a group of like-minded friends to convey the message.

Light refreshments will be provided.
